

Question 1 (10 points): 12:00-12:15 (should submit by 12:20)

Suppose that you have a CNN classifier that you have already trained on your training images. Now you want to estimate its error rate on a separate test set. How does the number of images in this test set affect the confidence of your error estimation? Explain it mathematically.